

First call for abstracts

Children and Online Sexual Violence Research - Protection - Assistance

12-13 February 2009, Quality Hotel Globe, Stockholm, Sweden

Welcome to a conference with focus on children and online sexual violence. The latest research and professional experiences will be presented. The conference will be organized by BUP-Elefanten, University Hospital of Linköping; CBSS, Council of the Baltic Sea States; Swedish Welfare Foundation with support from World Childhood Foundation and TeliaSonera.

Plenary presentations by:

- Ethel Quayle, University of Edinburgh, UK
- Janis Wolak, University of New Hampshire, US
- Terry Jones, CEOP, UK
- Katia Wagner, SE

Registration is open to all researchers and practitioners working in the field; social workers, psychologists, educators, physicians, legal practitioners, police, NGOs, civil servants and others. All participants are encouraged to submit abstracts for workshop presentations, maximum of 400 words, in English, Russian or Swedish. Deadline for abstract submission is December 12th 2008.

Invitation and Conference program will be available by the end of October at www.allmannabarnhuset.se. For more information and early registration info@allmannabarnhuset.se

BUP-Elefanten Linköping
Landstinget i Östergötland

